

Stay healthy throughout the year with Teladoc.

Runny nose, sneezing, itchy eyes, hives...

It's allergy season!

One in five people suffer from seasonal allergies.

We are familiar with the symptoms and the impact allergies can have on your daily life. They take you away from outdoor activities with friends and family, leave you feeling drained at work and keep you from having a good night's sleep.

Fortunately, you have access to Teladoc. Our national network of U.S. board-certified doctors are available 24/7/365 through the convenience of phone or online video consultations to help diagnose and treat your seasonal allergy symptoms.

CONDITIONS

Teladoc can treat many of your medical conditions, including:

- Allergies
- Cold and flu symptoms
- Bronchitis
- Pink eye
- Urinary tract infection
- Respiratory infection
- Sinus problems
